THE opening of the condensed-milk factory at Buena Park, yesterday, is worthy of special mention, as evidence of the encouraging tendency toward the practical development of our resources. Scarcely a week passes now, days, without some industry of this character being started up. In the aggregate, these little factories will soon make an important feature of Southern California's prosperity. Already the sorghum factory is contemplated, in the neighborhood of the milk factory at Buena Park. There is still plenty of room here for remunerative manufacturing enterprises on a small scale. Home products, as yet, bear but a small proportion to what we import from the east.

THE Newark American very pertinently observes that if our brothers of the Democratic press who are attempting to gain political capital for their party out of the fact that the surplus in the national treasury has been reduced from $140,000,000 to about twenty million dollars, would stop long enough to remember that there has not been a single dollar expended by the UNION LEAGUE.

A PLEASANT BANQUET IN THE NEW QUARTERS.

Which Amounted to an Ovation for Col. H. H. Markham—He Makes a Modest Little Speech and Talks of Other Things Beside His Candidacy.

The rooms of the Union League, in the Downey block, were filled to overflowing last evening, the occasion being one of those informal impromptu banquets for which the institution is making quite a reputation. Almost every city and county official was present, together with most of the prominent local Republican leaders, besides which there were quite a number of distinguished guests from other cities, among whom were Col. W. H. Chamberlain, president of the Union League of San Francisco; Col. Collier, president of the Union League of San Diego; Ira G. Hoyt, State Superintendent of Schools; Judge Wilde of Ventura and Col. H. H. Markham of Pasadena.

After some time spent in social intercourse, the guests were invited to the large meeting-room of the league, where a cold spread had been provided. The banquet was wholly informal, prominent members of the club assisting in making their guests feel at home. At the conclusion of the banquet, corn-cob pipes and tobacco were passed around, together with roman punch and beer, and at 9 o'clock Mr. Higgins, as chairman, called the meeting to order, and, after a few remarks, requesting the speakers to be as brief as possible, as there were a number to be heard, he introduced the first speaker of the evening, J. R. McLachlin of Pasadena, who delivered a brief address of welcome to those present not members of the league.

Mr. McLachlin was followed by Judge Wilde of Ventura, in an eloquent address, advocating fidelity to the party, and urging the necessity for concert of action on the part of the Republicans of the State.

Hon. Thomas J. Carran was the next speaker. He briefly referred to the political outlook in the State, urging that the next nominee should come from Southern California. Mr. Carran said he thought that when a ward put forward a candidate it should give him its unanimous support. It is the same with a county—the delegation should be a unit for that candidate. He thought that the next candidate for Governor should come from Southern California, and as that candidate would be the next Governor, it is the duty of the Republicans of Southern California to nominate the best man in this end of the State.

Chairman Higgins then said that he would call on a gentleman who is a candidate himself. He referred to Hon. H. H. Markham of Pasadena. The mention of Col. Markham's name was received with an outburst of applause, and the wildest enthusiasm prevailed as that gentleman made his way to the platform, the members jumping up on their chairs, throwing up their hats and cheering. When quiet had been restored, Col. Markham briefly addressed the assembly, thanking them for the honor conferred on him by electing him a member of the league. He paid a high tribute to the young Republicans, saying they are the hope of the country, on whom its future success and prosperity depended. He then referred to the late Presidential election, saying that the people had found out their error in putting the Democrats in charge of the Government, and had sent them back to serve a post-graduate course of say twenty-five years, under the tuition of the Republican party, and that Tom Reed had been selected to give them the first lesson in that post-graduate course. On behalf of the Republicans of California, he thanked Mr. Reed for the consideration shown the delegation from this State in the appointment of the committee, and paid a high tribute to that gentleman, retiring, amid applause, after thanking his audience for the attention shown him.

After music by the orchestra, the chairman stated that, as this was the first large meeting since the death of the late John R. Briery, on the suggestion of Coroner J. M. Meredith, he called for the drinking of a toast standing and in silence, in his honor, which was done.

State Superintendent of Instruction Ira G. Hoyt was then introduced, and briefly reviewed the progress of the free school system of the State, saying that the schools were never in better condition than at the present time, and that they are the best in the United States, the reasons for which are higher qualifications required for teachers, and better salaries paid, which had the result of securing better service. Fifty-two per cent. of the census children of the State attended the public schools, and during the past year there has been an increase of 9000 in the average daily attendance. He briefly referred to the work of the State Normal School in educating teachers, saying that Los Angeles county stands first in the number of graduates of this school among its teachers, with 75 per cent, while the balance of the State has but 22 per cent. Mr. Hoyt closed by paying a high tribute to the public by the success of the State Teachers' Association just held in this city, and outlined the programme for the future.

Col. Chamberlain of the San Francisco Union League explained the conduct of that organization at some length, and promised its support for any man that the Los Angeles organization agreed upon, and was followed by Hon. William Collier of the San Diego Union League, who pledged the hearty support of San Diego for the Republican ticket from top to bottom in the coming election.

Brief addresses were made by Maj. George H. Bonebrake, Hon. M. T. Allen, L. E. Mosher, Judge Lammie and Maj. J. A. Donnell.

The chairman announced that next Tuesday will be election day of the league, and urged all the members to be promptly on hand to vote, after which the exercises were brought to a close by a short speech by Judge B. N. Smith.

There are 40 orchards in San Bernardino county which paid 10 per cent. last year on the valuation of over two thousand dollars an acre.

FARM TOPICS.

Unwise Destruction of Deciduous Orchards.

The Pomona Progress gives the following very timely advice:

Orange growing in Southern California certainly never had better prospects for the future than now, and on new land and under conditions adapted to this industry, is probably the most profitable and surest tree to plant. But to cut down bearing orchards of good deciduous varieties is simply to lose three or four years of time and profit. The deciduous fruit outlook, too, has not been as bright in years as today, and those who will give the orchards proper care are sure of abundant rewards. Peaches, apricots and pears will be needed in the future as well as oranges and lemons. But especially would we protest against the destruction of bearing vineyards. The dreaded vine disease seems at last to have lost its virulence, and the Pomona Valley seems especially adapted to the grape, and there is an immense market open for the production of table grapes for shipment to the East.

Such varieties as the Tokay, Black Morocco and Cornichon and others have proved invariably profitable during the past year in the northern portion of the State. The later season of Southern California would bring our shipments to market at the most profitable time of the year. The above varieties brought at auction in New York last fall as high as $8 per dozen crate of 40 pounds, or over twenty cents per pound. After paying all expenses, California shippers netted from three to five hundred dollars per acre from their vineyards.

The Staying Qualities of Alfalfa.
In answer to the question, "How long will alfalfa live and produce without being re-seeded?" the Denver Field and Farm says:

We read that 300 years ago the Jesuits from Spain sailed the South seas, and as a precaution against starvation of shipwrecked mariners, planted alfalfa on the little barren islands of the ocean, and left a few pairs of goats—male and female—that they might eat this ever-living plant and produce their kind, and possibly be the means of saving human life. We have knowledge of fields of this plant still flourishing near the ancient city of Puebla that were planted in the days of Cortez, the invader. In the valley of Taos, near the village of that name, is a small field of this plant growing that has yielded three crops per year for over one hundred years. We were informed by the proprietor of this Taos meadow, a few days since, that he had cut the grass from this field for 60 years, and he believed that the crop of the present season was stouter than it ever was before.

Oranges His Best Investment.

(Pomona Progress.)
A gentleman in Pomona has shown us a private letter from a Chicago merchant, who owns several acres of an orange orchard in this valley. The writer of the letter is a very wealthy citizen, shrewd and careful. Under promise not to reveal the gentleman's name we have been allowed to copy the following from the letter as the man's opinion of his investment here: "If you can find 2000 first-class home-grown navel orange trees and can prepare the land for planting them for me this season, you may go ahead and do it. Pay what is right for the trees, work and extra land, and draw on me whenever you want funds. I am sorry I cannot come to Pomona this season, as I have long planned to consider that my orange property investment is the best I have anywhere, except my life insurance. I have, as you know, stock in nine railroads, the Chicago Water Company, the Pullman Car Company, the Chicago Stove Company and two cable car companies, and my orange property pays me one-third better than any one of these. Indeed, I have reckoned that I could lose one-half my orange crop next year, and I then would have made 16 per cent. annually on my investment. If I could only live in Southern California and have no other business, I would make a second Richard's orange orchard."

Redlands shipped a carload of choice oranges to De Witt & Co., Columbus, Ohio. The top layer was enveloped in printed wrappers, giving the location where the oranges were grown and the names of the growers. Redlands will get there every time.

How you can have a Vigorous Nervous System.

The Marvelous Success of Paine's Celery Compound is shown with Living Examples, and it is Proven to be Nature's True Health Restorative.

The most skeptical should be convinced by the following brief extracts from letters recently received by us, that Paine's Celery Compound is an unfailing means of cure in all diseases which are caused by weakened nerves.

"For some months before using Paine's Celery Compound, I was afflicted with insomnia and more or less vertigo—all brought on by overwork and protracted anxiety.

"Since using the Compound I feel much better, sleep soundly, and my head troubles me less. I have not, meanwhile, intermitted or materially slackened my work.

"For the benefit I have gained from your preparation I am grateful to God and thankful to you." L. B. W. SHRYOCK, Pastor of Presbyterian Church, Reynoldsville, Pa.

Three months after writing the above Rev. Mr. Shryock said: "The symptoms for which I used Paine's Celery Compound have not returned, although I have had no leisure or vacation from work."

"For a long time I was so nervous and worn out that I could not work. I tried many medicines, but none gave me relief until I used Paine's Celery Compound, which at once strengthened and invigorated my nerves. Many of my friends have used it at my recommendation, and they all agree with me in pronouncing it the best nerve tonic ever discovered."

HARLEY SHERMAN, Burlington, Vt.
Facts like these are the best reason why you should not despair of a cure. What the Compound has done for others it will do for you.

The strength arising from a scarcity of stocks on the street, however, put an end to the bear demonstration, only Rock Island and sugar showing any real weakness. The final changes are generally fractional losses. Rumors of an adverse decision in San Francisco on the sugar case led to selling of sugar refineries, and it lost 1 1/2 per cent., after selling at 24, except dividend of 2 1/2 per cent., and although the story was denied, the stock failed to rally, and closed at the lowest figure.

New York, March 25.—The decision of the Supreme Court in the "Granger" cases yesterday lost all its influence this morning. The strength arising from a scarcity of stocks on the street, however, put an end to the bear demonstration, only Rock Island and sugar showing any real weakness. The final changes are generally fractional losses. Rumors of an adverse decision in San Francisco on the sugar case led to selling of sugar refineries, and it lost 1 1/2 per cent., after selling at 24, except dividend of 2 1/2 per cent., and although the story was denied, the stock failed to rally, and closed at the lowest figure.

KING CAUCUS.

MEETINGS HELD IN ALL OF THE WARDS LAST EVENING

To Select Delegates to the Citizens' Convention and Nominate Trusttees—Full Report of the Selections and the Proceedings.

Pursuant to published notices and circulars from the Citizens' Committee ward caucuses were held in the four wards of Pasadena last evening, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the City Council from each ward, and to select 25 delegates in each ward to the Citizens' City Convention, to be held tomorrow evening, at Williams's Hall.

FIRST WARD.

The office of the Lake Vineyard Land and Water Company was filled when C. W. Simpson called the caucus to order. C. W. Simpson was elected chairman and H. E. Pratt secretary.

The chairman stated the objects of the caucus was to nominate a trustee and 25 delegates, by reading the call for the same, also remarked that victory of the Citizens' ticket meant retrenchment and reform in our local government.

Capt. C. W. Simpson was nominated and was unanimously elected to go before the people as the candidate of the First Ward for trustee.

C. C. Brown addressed the caucus regarding the "noted committee of five," of which he was a member, explaining the work and objects of that committee.

H. W. Hines and Maj. S. B. Hogan spoke regarding the committee of 17, and stated that on the committee were representatives of all the political parties, there being two Prohibitionists, two Democrats and the balance Republicans; that being considered a fair representation of the three parties.

The following named gentlemen were elected as delegates to represent the First Ward at the general convention Thursday next: C. C. Brown, E. Kayser, M. E. Wood, Will Wakely, John Kner, Capt. Drake, S. H. Do-little, B. M. Furlong, Charles Legge, H. W. Hines, G. B. Post, C. Biedebach, C. Hartwell, W. O. Bellair, J. F. Mullin, A. Thorus, F. C. Munroe, G. D.
Webster, L. A. Wright, G. B. Hogan, W. S. Arnold, Charles Converse, Dr.

SECOND WARD.

The meeting was called to order by W. S. Wright. By request Mr. Greer read the call and declaration of principles. W. S. Wright was elected chairman. H. Morris was elected secretary.
The chair stated purpose of meeting.
W. U. Masters moved to adopt the platform as read. The secretary asked that the statements of the platform be read.

The following were elected delegates to the general convention: Messrs.
H. M. Sargent, I. N. Wood, J. R.
Greer, Homer Morris, A. O. Bristol, B.
F. Bennett, J. Hooper, W. S. Wright, S. Bennett, W. U. Masters, Fred Swift, H. J. Vail, Steven Helen John McDonald, T. A. Reed, C. H.
Reed, F. V. Hovey, J. T. Buchanan, Charles Moore, Thomas Banbury,
George W. White, Seth Glidden, John S. Cox, Peter Steit, Charles Grimes.

Delegates were instructed to appoint substitutes in case of absence.
Thomas Banbury was nominated as candidate for City Trustee by unanimous rising vote.

THIRD WARD.

A large number of business men and others met in the Wooster block in this ward at 7:45, and the meeting was called to order by B. M. Wotkins, member of the Citizens' Committee of Seventeen for this ward, who read the resolutions, heretofore printed in THE TIMES.

Mr. Wotkins stated that only those who are in sympathy with this movement as outlined in the resolutions should take part in the caucus.

William H. Wiley was selected chairman and W. H. Conger secretary.
The president announced that the meeting was ready for business, and called for nominations for a member of the Council from this ward.

S. Washburn placed A. K. McQuillan in nomination for the position.

H. H. Rose was nominated, but declined, and seconded the nomination of Mr. McQuilgan.

Mr. McQuilgan moved that the secretary be instructed to cast the vote of the caucus for A. K. McQuilgan, and it was so ordered.

Mr. Wotkins moved that a committee of five be appointed to name 25 gentlemen as delegates to the Citizens' City Convention.

This was opposed by several gentlemen and was withdrawn by the mover.

W. E. Arthur then moved that the caucus proceed to ballot for delegates to the city convention, after first registering the name before voting, and it was so ordered.

Tellers were appointed and the voting commenced, after a large number of gentlemen's names had been placed in nomination by members of the caucus and written out on a blackboard. The voting was long and tedious, and the counting prolonged to such a late hour that this report was closed before all the delegate count was completed.

The names given, however, will be found correct, with the possible exception of two or three last named: W. E.
Arthur, P. P. Bonham, H. G. Bennett, A. H. Conger, J. E. Doty, George Greely, W. P. Grimes, E. J. Gilmore, Harry Hasking, W. H. Holmes, J. E.
Place, B. M. Wotkins, H. H. Rose, Walter Wotkins, A. J. Wright, S.
Washburn, J. S. Mills, S. E. Locke, E. H. May, C. S. Martin, C. F. Holder, J.
E. Viler, George F. Conger, J. O. Mc-Cament, W. H. Hotelling, W. H. Wiley, Charles Marsh.

THE FOURTH WARD.

The caucus in the Fourth Ward was held in the Pasadena Transfer Company's building, on Raymond avenue.
There was a large attendance.
The meeting was called to order by John W. Wood, who was, on motion,

BY MAIL, $9 A YEAR.

elected chairman. E. E. Fordham was chosen secretary.

The declaration of principles adopted by the committee of seventeen was read by the secretary.

A brief speech was made by the chairman in support of the platform, and announcing the business to be conducted. It was voted that all who vote shall thereby pledge themselves to support the man nominated by the caucus for trustee for the ward.

After nominations had been made, W. O. Swan and John O. Lowe were appointed tellers and balloting proceeded. The candidates put in nomination were James Clark, Dr. B. W.
Rowland, E. S. Frost, C. H. Rhodes, Charles A. Gardner and J. Brockway.

On the first ballot James Clark was found to have a majority, and on motion he was declared the unanimous choice of the caucus for Councilman for the Fourth Ward.

The following delegates to the city convention to be held on Thursday were chosen: John W. Wood, W. O.
Swan, B. P. Brockway, F. B. Wetherby, Charles A. Gardner, T.
J. Ritz, F. H. Heydenrich, L. C. Torrance, John O. Lowe, E. E. Fordham, W. J. McCaldin, W.
L. Vail, J. C. Fitzhugh, Frank H.
Lowe, George Foster, James McLachlan, C. W. Swan, E. S. Frost, C. M.
Phillips, W. J. Craig, G. E. Prosser, H. H. Hertel and F. F. Rowland.

James Clark, the nominee of the caucus, trustee for the Fourth Ward, announced himself as heartily in favor of the platform, and pledged himself to do his utmost to further the city's best interests, if elected. He was greeted with hearty applause.

On motion, the caucus adjourned.

THE UNION PACIFIC.

News from the Front Regarding This Great Road.

The citizens of Pasadena, as well as all Southern Californians, have felt a deep interest in the proposed extension of the Union Pacific Railroad from Salt Lake City to the coast. All the rumors regarding this extension which have appeared in the papers from time to time have been eagerly read. The belief is general here that the road is sure to come, and many feel assured that the Cross Railroad will be a portion of the transcontinental road.

One of our prominent citizens, Martin H. Wright, left the city March 12th in company with a friend who had been over the route for a trip across country to Pioche, Nev. They went by rail to Daggett, and from that point by team to Pioche.

Pioche is the town in Southern Nevada toward which the Union Pacific is building. The management of the road had announced that it was building a road to Pioche, leaving it to be inferred that Pioche was for the present, at least, to be the terminus. It seems, however, as a matter of fact, that the stakes of the survey are set several miles to the east and south of Pioche, extending toward a pass west of that place. So that Pioche will not be on the main line, as it will be by a branch road to it by a branch road. This is taken as a further evidence that the road will be extended speedily by Pioche and into Southern California.

A letter has just been received here from Mr. Wright, written at Pioche, in which he says that 500 men with teams are busy grading near Pioche, and that several surveying parties are in the field on this side of Pioche. He announces it as his conviction that the road will surely be built into Southern California.

BREVITIES.

The fire engine was taken out to test a new fire hydrant yesterday.
The weather has borne a very threatening aspect for two days past, but no rain had fallen in Pasadena up to 10 o'clock last night.

A business man is threatening to cause the arrest of "Archie" and his melodious triangle on the charge of being a public nuisance.

The streets of Pasadena presented a live appearance all day yesterday, with considerable button-holing going on over the caucuses for the evening.
The special meeting of the Board of Trade called for yesterday afternoon was indefinitely postponed. The regular monthly meeting of the board will be held next Tuesday afternoon.

The United Samaritans, a society of ladies organized for charitable and religious purposes, held a well-attended meeting in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church, yesterday afternoon.

The young ladies of the King's Daughters, Circle No. 2, of Olivewood, made a surprise visit last evening to the residence of their pastor, Rev. T. C.
Miller, in North Pasadena. The trip thither was made on a hay rack and was productive of much amusement. The party was hospitably received by Rev. Mr. Miller, and the evening was pleasantly spent in conversation for the most part, and several excellent musical selections.

PERSONAL.

J. W. Scoville is now en route for Chicago.

Alexander McNally and family left today for their Chicago home via the Santa Fé.

A Generous Offer.

Father A. G. Throop, notwithstanding he has heretofore donated $10,000 for the use and benefit of the Universal Church of Pasadena, has made still a more generous offer to the trustees of that organization. It is to the effect that, if the church will raise $12,000 in realty or otherwise, he will assume the entire indebtedness of the church, amounting to $18,000. His object is to do this so that the church may be dedicated free of debt on April 13th next. The parish is therefore making a determined and zealous effort to raise the $12,000.

Robbery.

Monday evening the premises of Michael Daly, an employe of the Cross road, were visited by thieves. A number of sacks of coal and several chickens were stolen. The poultry-yards of several of his neighbors were visited on the same night and several chickens stolen.

Frauds on the Cross Road.
A slight error crept into the local notice of the new time card over the cross road printed in THE TIMES yesterday. The Sunday trains are the same as those of other days, except that the 8 o'clock a.m. train will not run out of Los Angeles, nor the 7 o'clock p.m. train out of Pasadena.

On the day from both places, commencing at 7 o'clock a.m. at Los Angeles and 6 o'clock a.m. at Pasadena.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

Attention Called to Danger.

GARYANZA, March 25.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] Allow me, through your columns, to call attention to the fact that there exists in Garyanza, since the running of the Cross road, two very dangerous chasms—one at the corner of San Pascual and Pasadena avenues, in the east side of town, and the other near the railroad crossing. Now, since the accident of Sunday at the last named place, I fail to see why a set of men of judgment will permit those two roads to remain open in their present condition for one day, especially when these men are paid by the public to see that we have decent roads. Possibly within a few days there will be another and far more serious accident at one of these places, attended by loss of life; and then probably we will learn where the damages should be placed.

SKOOTYRE.

[The Garyanza Accident.]

LOS ANGELES, March 24.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] The accident yesterday at Garyanza, by which a carriage load of people went down a bank 40 feet high, naturally brings up the query as to who is responsible for a crossing as dangerous as that is.
The road rises out of the arroyo parallel with and out of sight of the railroad, and just as often as a train happens along when a team is on the grade near the top, just so often will an accident occur, as the horse does not live that will be quiet when a rushing, whistling train comes up behind and passes within the feet of him, and it takes but a step sideways or back to precipitate everything over the edge.

The policy that gives up our important public thoroughfares to a railroad company and renders necessary a new road at public expense or else leaves such death traps as this merits the severest condemnation. W.

POULTRY AND PEANUTS.

LOS ANGELES, March 24.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] It is said by some that the poultry business in this part of California will not pay, but it has been demonstrated beyond a doubt that this is one of the most favored spots in the United States for successful work in this line. But if requires constant, intelligent care, and if a person is not in possession of the proper information, poultry literature is abundant and very cheap, and we cannot afford to spend $100 in experiments when the information we want can be had for a few cents at any good book store, or subscribing for a wide-awake newspaper. Let me say that this is the best and most advertising dog for we have no poultry to sell, and our neighbors buy all the eggs we have to spare, but there is an object in it, which will appear further on.

We feed what is recommended by successful poultrymen. Bran and rolled barley equal parts, a little lime, a little salt, a little red pepper, a little salt, a little Fraser's poultry food and once a week a teaspoonful of sulphur. Mix all to a very thick mush with hot water, feed a little cracked corn or whole wheat noon and night, clean out from under the roosts every morning occasionally. Give ashes or fine road dust for the feet, in use for the feet and insect powder in the nest boxes to prevent mites swarming. We let them out about an hour every day to pick grass. I spade up a little soil every day, so they can get plenty of worms. We get two-thirds as many eggs every day as there are laying hens, and they all lay except when brooding.

Any one who has a city lot can spare room enough to keep one or two dozen hens, and then we will not send so much money away to buy eggs and poultry. Here is where the aforesaid object comes in, for what is beneficial to the community at large is in some measure beneficial to me, and then I will be glad to have a hand in bringing it about. A few weeks ago I published a short article on the peanut industry, referring to me as a success in the business. The article was copied into the San Francisco Herald and Chronicle and several other interior papers, and mark the result. I have been flooded with letters of inquiry, and hundreds of farmers are planting peanuts this year who did not think of planting last year, until the demand for seed has entirely exhausted our local supply, and some are getting easterly seed to plant. The result will be that instead of sending our money away for carloads of peanuts, as heretofore, next fall we will have some to ship away and bring our money back.
